People To Vote Tuesday On Sale Of Gas System

The voters of the City of Escanaba will go to the polls on Tuesday, June 1, to decide whether the municipal propane gas system will be sold to Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. for $725,000.

The polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

Polling places are: First Precinct — Delta County Court House; Second — Community College West Hall; Third — Community College Benifas Hall; Fourth — Jefferson School; Fifth — Junior High School; Sixth — Lemmer School; Seventh — Webster School.

All registered voters may ballot on the proposition. It is not necessary to own property.

Two questions, both to be answered "yes" or "no" will be on the ballot in connection with the proposed sale.

The first question is that proposing the sale by the City of Escanaba of its gas production and distribution facilities to Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. The city will receive $725,000 cash if the people approve.

The second question has to do with an amendment of the City Charter to provide for the granting of a franchise and to provide for the regulation of rates, charges and character of service of public utilities.

To carry, both questions must be approved by a 60 percent affirmative vote.

Some Controversy
Sale of the municipal gas utility is endorsed by:

The City Council, the Natural Gas Advisory Committee, engineering consultants Black & Veatch, city officials, former members of the Council and former city managers, and many individuals in the community.

The proposed sale is opposed by a United Labor Gas Study Committee.

The proposition has been widely discussed. The Council sponsored a series of information meetings that were held in the City Hall and representatives of the city spoke to groups and organizations and answered questions.

Because there has been controversy regarding the proposal to sell the municipal gas system, the Council has made every effort to fully inform the people on all facets of the question.

A letter, signed by all members of the Council — Mayor George Rusch, Harold Vanlerberghe, H. George Nelson, Jacob A. Bink and Glenn Moreau — has been distributed to Escanaba people by the Council.

The letter in part: "We feel we have a duty as your Councilmen to exercise

SEC Approves

The Federal Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington on Friday authorized Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. to purchase the City of Escanaba gas plant at a price of $725,000.

This was the final governmental step in authorization of the sale of the utility, which is subject to a vote of the people of Escanaba in a special election on Tuesday, June 1. Earlier the project had been approved by the Michigan Public Service Commission and the Federal Power Commission.

In granting approval, the SEC pointed out that the assets to be acquired by Michigan Consolidated from the city originally cost the city approximately $350,000, and that a study by consulting engineers for the City indicated that a reasonable price was approximately $700,000.

SEC said that no other state or federal commission has jurisdiction over the proposed acquisition of the utility and that issuance of its order was a final decision and means that if the people of Escanaba approve the sale in the June 1 election, Michigan Consolidated can promptly pay the $725,000 to the City of Escanaba and take over operation of the gas facility.

Our best judgment in the affairs of City Government. Our obligation is one of continuing responsibility to solve municipal problems by the application of reason and judgement.

"We respectfully ask that you consider this when you go to the polls on Tuesday to vote; and we hope that you will vote yes."

"Past and present City Councils have for a number of years actively pursued the issue of natural gas for Upper Michigan, and particularly for our city. (We are gratified that all those efforts helped to finally make natural gas available to this area.) In our study of the matter we became aware of the fact that Escanaba, with an old existing gas distribution system, had a number of problems to solve; and we called in experts to help us.

Got Top Price

"We engaged the Black & Veatch firm, well known to Escanaba for its fine work on our electric system, to give us technical advice on the many engineering and financial problems involved. The Black & Veatch experts, as well as our own City manager and department heads, spent many hours gathering and evaluating data; and out of this work came this recommendation: Try to get a higher price, but if we could sell our present system for at least $600,000 it would be better to do so than to risk attempting the operation ourselves.

"You know what we did next. Together with the Citizens' Advisory Group studying the matter with us, we all sat down around the table with representatives of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co.; and after some long, hard hours of bargaining we secured an offer of $725,000 for the system. Subject to the approval of the voters, we agreed to sell for this price.

"It then became our duty to tell the people of Escanaba why we reached that decision, and this we have done in the most thorough manner possible. Our duty was to inform, so the voters could decide. It is our sincere hope that every voter will take part in this decision, as the future welfare of our city is concerned. An individual may not agree with us, but we hope you will bear in mind that the recommendation we make to vote yes came about as the result of exercising our best judgment on the matter.

"It is our unanimous conclusion that for the price of $725,000 our municipal gas system should be sold.

"We hope you will give us your endorsement with a yes vote on the two questions on the ballot. We are encouraged to think you will do so by the fact that every single past City councilman and City official agrees with us.)

State Police Add Patrols

State Police of the Gladstone Post began increased traffic patrols Friday in an effort to reduce traffic accidents during the three-day Memorial Day weekend.

Sgt. Hugh E. Pope, commanding officer of the Gladstone Post, said all weekend leaves have been cancelled and troopers are making a "concerted effort" to maintain safety on area highways.

Two National Guardsmen started work Friday to split the night patrol, providing greater coverage, and Sgt. William Simmons, Marquette detective, has been added to man the desk and spring other men for traffic patrol work.

During peak traffic periods—between 4 and 9 p.m.—Pope said the Post will have six cars on the road.

"From past experience the department feels that extra traffic patrols helps reduce the incidence of accidents," Pope said. "We'll be covering all of the main highways, concentrating in known high traffic and high accident areas."

Last year 24 persons were killed in Michigan in 20 fatal accidents over the 78-hour Memorial Day weekend.

Omaha Company Gets Peninsula Pipeline Permit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Power Commission ruled late Friday that Northern Natural Gas Co., Omaha, Neb., may expand its pipeline system to provide gas to serve additional communities in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan and in Wisconsin.

A spokesman said the commission announced its decision without taking time to prepare the usual opinion in order to give the company as much notice as possible. He pointed out that the area involved has a short construction season because of severe winters.

"Northern has already asked for bids for construction of pipeline," said H. M. Sampson, vice president of the firm, "and contracts for construction will be awarded immediately."

"We expect construction to be underway June 15," he said.

Examiner Francis L. Hall ruled on April 12 that Northern Natural should be authorized to expand its system so that it may make wholesale sales to three distributors for resale in 17 communities. The communities are in Marquette, Houghton, Baraga and Gogebic counties in Michigan, and in Ashland, Iron and Bayfield counties in Wisconsin.

On April 30 the commission adopted another decision by Hall authorizing Michigan Wisconsin Pipeline Co., Detroit, to expand its system to supply gas to 36 communities in Delta, Iron, Dickinson and Menominee counties in Michigan.

Sampson said the first work in laying more than 500 miles of pipeline will begin this summer with the placing of a main pipeline extension from Duluth, Minn., to Marquette. Next spring, pipeline will be constructed to the Keweenaw Peninsula, he said.

To pay for most of the increase it raised probate court fees.

Judges' salaries, now ranging from $5,000 to $18,000 depending on county population, will go to a $7,500-$27,500 scale. Pay for circuit, appeals and supreme court judges were substantially boosted in earlier-approved Senate bills.

Licensing of residential contractors was expanded to all counties and a portion of the Blue Water Bridge, from Port Huron to Sarnia, Ontario, was conveyed to Canada per previous agreement in other bills.

An attempt by Dzendzel to tack an antiwitch-blade knife measure onto a bill was rejected on parliamentary grounds.

Mr. George M. Harvey
City Manager
City of Escanaba
Escanaba, Michigan

Dear Mr. Harvey:

On August 5, 1964, we submitted our report on the economic feasibility of supplying natural gas to consumers in the City of Escanaba. Portions of this report were based upon data for the year ending December 31, 1963, which was the most current information available at the time of our field study.

On August 28, 1964, we submitted certain revised data to up-date the information shown in the initial report for actual operating experience through June 30, 1964. During the latter part of 1964 and the early part of 1965, we had an opportunity to further refine our analysis based upon known changes during 1964.

Since we strongly urged and actively assisted the City Council in negotiating a price for the sale of the gas system, it appears appropriate for us to comment on the results of that negotiation.

On the basis of a $725,000 sale price and the most recent data available to us, our analysis shows that the economic benefits to the City under private operation of the gas utility significantly exceed the economic benefits to the City under municipal operation.

In addition, under private operation, the City of Escanaba will not be exposed to the financial risk and hazards of converting the existing system to natural gas or from continued operation of a gas distribution system.

In our judgment, therefore, the City of Escanaba is best served by accepting the $725,000 offer made by Michigan Consolidated Gas Company for the purchase of the existing gas utility.

Very truly yours,
BLACK & VEATCH OF MICHIGAN
W. R. Chaney

A PUBLIC STATEMENT

If there could be any reasonable assurance that the City Gas Utility could earn enough to make it worth keeping, I would have urged the City Council to stay in the gas business. However, I am convinced it cannot, and I am all in favor of selling.

Unless we spend a great deal of money on the mains, our losses of gas will be even higher with natural gas than with propane - and that loss has been averaging about 20%. (An ideal system should be less than 5%). In the past 12 years, our repairs have consisted mostly of caulking the pipe joints with lead. To do the job right would mean locating every defective joint and digging down and installing a special clamp - and there are over 6000 old iron joints in our system. This job, plus replacing old services, could amount to more than $300,000.00.

All this work would be in addition to the engineers' normal estimate, and is based on my knowledge of the underground conditions. I can't see the sense of us borrowing that money to try to fix up our system when we have the chance to sell it for a good price.

This is a golden opportunity to get out from under the risks of trying to run a natural gas business - a business that requires considerable experience. My recommendation to the City Council is this: SELL the system, and let a company run it that has the experience, know-how and resources that we do not have. The gas customers and all taxpayers will be better off. I say we should all

Vote Yes Tuesday

Escanaba voters will ballot Tuesday in a special election on two issues:

1. Whether to sell the City of Escanaba propane gas utility to Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. of Detroit for $725,000. (The company is building a natural gas pipeline to Escanaba and will sell natural gas from its transmission line in the City of Escanaba if it buys the city distribution system.)

2. Whether to amend the city charter to authorize the granting of a franchise for a utility operating in the City of Escanaba and to permit control of its rates by the Michigan Public Service Commission.

Escanaba's City government sought expert advice on what it should do about natural gas. It engaged the engineering consulting firm of Black & Veatch, of Kansas City, Mo., (which designed the city's electric generating plant) to study the proposal and recommend whether the City should keep its gas utility and convert it to natural gas (cheaper and safer than propane) and make what profit it could on the utility, or whether it should sell the City gas system to Michigan Consolidated and let it operate it.

Black & Veatch told the City to sell the plant at the price offered; that it represented more good to the City than it could get by keeping the plant. This judgment involved loss of City profits from the gas plant (there are none; all its earnings go to a self-insurance fund because it cannot obtain satisfactory commercial coverage) taxes, fuel costs to the community, etc.

The Black & Veatch report and recommendation put the City Council and City Administration solidly on the side of sale. A Natural Gas Advisory Committee of citizens representing labor, engineering, education, government, industry, business and the taxing process, which was created by Council to study the situation, recommended unanimously that the City sell its gas plant. (It is the last municipal gas plant left in Michigan.)

The Press, on the basis of the presentations made by the City and its advisors and by opponents of sale in the course of the campaign, supports the City Government position and urges a Yes vote on Tuesday. Citizen judgment on the issues may be hazy because of the complexity of rate tables and the many factors involved, but we believe that any citizen who supports the official leadership of the community and its professional and lay counselors will be voting for his best interests and those of the community.

The election campaign has set forth the major issues—lower rates, more city income, less City liability, avoidance of more city spending on the gas plant—so that there should be a sufficiently informed electorate. There is a danger, however that voter apathy may defeat the City proposal.

People who do not intend to become gas customers—and that's strictly up to them—may think they have no role in Tuesday's election. But we are not voting on individual preferences in fuels, we are voting on sale of a city-owned utility for which $725,000 has been offered.

The sale would increase competition among fuel dealers, but Escanaba can be proud of its businessmen in this field for their reaction to the challenge.

The issue must carry by 60 per cent to authorize sale of the utility and defeat could mean a loss that would affect every taxpayer.

The Upper Peninsula has been going through a historic change in its power supply. It started with consolidation of its little electric systems into a few big ones. More recently we have had consolidations in the wholesale coal supply for the area. The oil industry has introduced bulk water transport of oil and terminal storage and even refining of heating oils in the U.P.

Now the U.P. is getting its first natural gas pipe line. This is an industrial advantage which the area has sought for years in its effort to compete with other areas in attracting industry. But natural gas by pipeline is not propane gas by tank car; it is a new and different business and calls for serious reappraisal of Escanaba's role in the gas business.

This is the purpose of Tuesday's election. It is voting for much more than sale of a non-profitable city utility; it is voting for a new era in public utility operation. It is authorizing competition between utilities where there has been none. It is adding to the City's promotional forces a privately owned utility with one of the best industrial development departments in the Midwest.

If Escanaba elects to keep its gas utility it will put itself in competition for industrial customers with the pipe line company and balk the location of new gas-using industries inside the city. Industrial gas would be cheaper outside the city. Escanaba's engineering counsel has told it that it cannot compete with the pipe line company and should take the benefits that come from its distribution as well as transmission of gas. Even the people in charge of the city's gas utility say: Sell.

It Happened On This Date

Today in History

By The Associated Press

Today is Saturday, May 29, the 149th day of 1965. There are 216 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1765, Patrick Henry introduced a resolution in the Virginia House of Burgesses calling on the assembly to take over full control of the right to tax Virginians. The resolution was a forerunner of the War for Independence.

On this date

In 1848, Wisconsin was admitted to the Union as the 30th state.

In 1910, Glenn Curtis flew from Albany to New York City, 137 miles in 2½ hours, breaking the long-distance air speed record.

In 1918, President Woodrow Wilson created the U.S. War Industries Board.

In 1946, President Harry S. Truman and his daughter, Margaret, were awarded degrees by George Washington University. It was graduation day for Margaret—her father was given an honorary degree.

Ten years ago—The American Red Cross allotted $1 million for relief in Midwest and South areas hit by tornadoes.

Five years ago—Former President Syngman Rhee of South Korea left with his wife for what was called an indefinite rest in Honolulu.

One year ago—President John F. Kennedy's widow and two children visited his grave on what would have been his 47th birthday.

And the End Not Yet

Finding The Way

By RALPH W. LOEW, D.D.

June not only ushers in summer. It welcomes in new chapters for a new generation. Graduates from schools, brides and grooms and new areas of work for young people indicate the hopes of other generations that they can match their courage and dreams against the future. They can't be protected from the stress; hopefully they are prepared.

A story from the recent floods in Minnesota presents the imaginative possibility confronting all of us. One of the residents of Hastings had heard the dire predictions concerning the possibilities of the waters of the angry Mississippi. He went out and bought 400 feet of heavy duty polyethylene, 16 feet wide. He wrapped his house as one would a Christmas gift. His neighbors looked at this modern Noah with something of the unbelief of the neighbors of that earlier flood-survivor.

When the waters rose, our friend who had wrapped his house in the filmy substance held the waters. Some of it seeped into the basement but marring a hand pump cared for that danger. Outside the waters rose three feet above the living room floor but none invaded his house.

After the flood receded he had a simple bill of $80 for his project. His neighbors had buckled floors, ruinous damage and an average bill of $6,000. A filmy substance doesn't look as strong as a dam but it held out the waters.

It is this understanding of some of the available resources at our hand that can hold out the angry floods of influence that seem to buckle the floors of our society and endanger many who begin the adventure of their dreams. There are many dams and levees that society builds to create the environment for healthy growth and responsible freedom in this land. Yet there is the personal adapting of the inner grace that withstands the assaults and the hurts that are flung at the individual and at the family.

One of the filmy safeguards against the floods of today is the sense of acceptance, the inner security that comes to those who have a sense of joyous purpose. This isn't achieved easily. Just as is reputation, it is built out of a million acts. It is the tie that enables a person or a couple to know that they don't have to fight for acceptance. Acceptance may seem to be a filmy grace to use as a shield against the rising waters, yet it holds out the floods that buckle the floors of all too many of our fellows.

Along with this is the easy relaxation of good humor, that lubricant that takes the grit out of the machinery of life. Real humor is hard to come by. There is the kind of biting, taunt and grim sarcasm that pounds so many relationships. There's little of that overflow of confidence that Jesus shared with his friends saying: "Be of good cheer. I have overcome the world."

Perhaps we have to understand that having built the possibilities for the career, there is some point in binding the hopes and dreams together in a quality of confident acceptance and loving good humor.

Yankees Go Home

A sharp reminder of the meaning of Memorial Day came appropriately a few days ago in a visit to the editor by a young veteran on leave from the Veterans Administration Hospital at Iron Mountain.

"I'm having surgery there," he explained "Result of Korea—after all these years."

He tendered a sheet torn from a magazine, an advertisement for machinery which pictured a military cemetery full of crosses and which said: "Yankees go home! But these Yankees, who saved the very nations now screaming this contemptible demand—these Yankees whose country's gold rebuilt these nations—these Yankee's can't go home."

The lesson is more forceful for a wounded veteran of Korea, or of any other of our wars than it can ever be for the citizens who didn't know battle, perhaps. And the demand that Americans give up their fight for the freedom of foreign peoples must seem the more outrageous to these men who have contributed to this noble cause with their blood, and who keep dear the memory of their fellow servicemen who contributed their lives.

It has been ever thus.

The good have always given their help where it was needed and have not been dissuaded by criticism, nor by rebuffs from the very people that they were aiding. The aim is always enlightenment and peoples must often be freed from oppressors before they can be brought to their own best interest.

If Americans were to leave every time someone said "Yankee go home!" they would desert their nation's noble tradition of generous and courageous devotion to freedom. We have earned the sure tribute of history for the greatest contribution to human dignity anywhere by any modern nation.

The mantle of Free World leadership has fallen upon us as a natural consequence of our great wealth and power and devotion to ideals. With it we inherit all the ill will of the foes of freedom, of the envious, of the self-seeking, of the ignorant. It is an unpleasant little shadow on the brightness of the nation's prestige and greatness, but it is unavoidable without deserting our purposes and so it is tolerable as a small cost of great achievement.

The great current uncertainties in the world—the outcome of the war in South Viet Nam—the future relationship between Red China and Red Russia—remind us of the precariousness of peace and tranquility. It should by the same process remind us of the costly manner in which peace is achieved and nurtured—by becoming strong and by acting courageously.

The Yankees are not coming home. They are going to serve their nation wherever destiny dictates. And for those who make the supreme sacrifice of life in the cause of country and of freedom there will be hallowed memory. They are not demeaned by cries of "Yankee go home!" That cry has echoed down the centuries in a hundred tongues to oppose the newcomer and the bearer of help.

We are not dissuaded by it from our cause.

Questions And Answers

By WALTER C. PARKES

Loafing is one of the easiest things to get tired of.

Q—What is the origin of the terms "scot free"?

A—In medieval England, "scot" was a municipal tax assessed according to ability to pay. To "get off scot free" was to be freed from having to pay any of the tax. The term now denotes exemption from any punishment, loss or penalty.

Q—Were income taxes levied during the Civil War?

A—Yes, both the North and South levied income taxes.

Q—Which one of President Franklin Roosevelt's sons was born in a foreign country?

A—Who served as manager of one major league club longer than anyone else in baseball history?

A—Connie Mack (Cornelius McGillicuddy) managed the Philadelphia Athletics from 1901 through 1950.

Q—Who was the first mother of a president to witness the inauguration of her son?

A—Mrs. Elizabeth Ballou Garfield.

Autos that won't start are a lot safer than those that won't stop in time.

Some restaurants blame television for a drop in business.

Lots of folks make television a steady diet.

When Congress adjourns, that ends the arguing over bills. In homes, it goes on forever.

Arctic floes make an eerie, cracking sound. As they grind together in the grip of wind and current, the ice builds into a pressure ridge. Huge blocks rear 40 to 60 feet into the air. Minutes later, this structure, seemingly tough as steel, may snap and crumble onto the ice below with devastating force.

Youth Agitate

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs or their members have been exceedingly active on the fringes of many of the protests, demonstrations and marches objecting to U. S. actions in Viet Nam.

Du Bois Clubs participated in the April 17 March on Washington. Their members have been identified in teaching and demonstrations at points as scattered as Chicago, Los Angeles, Madison and New York. They have been active in helping circulate petitions in which young men pledge not to serve in the U. S. Army in Viet Nam.

Du Bois Club members jumped in the fringes of the University of California riots to do what they could to stir things up, make things rougher and keep the fight going—though they were not in control.

Members joined in the Alabama civil rights march. Again they were on the fringes to stir up what trouble they could.

In most cases, as noted above, they have not been the prime movers or leaders. They've moved in—always in the background—in attempts to mold the movements in the direction they wanted and to prevent (if they could) moderates from having their way. In some cases they have succeeded in others they have failed.

The organization is now believed to have 35 clubs on college campuses with a combined membership of over 1,000.

It is appropriate, therefore, to look into the history of this curious group.

In October, 1963, Gus Hall, secretary general of the U. S. Communist Party, proposed setting up a new national Marxist youth organization.

Within a month, delegates were summoned to a conference in Chicago, where they were joined by Hall and Mortimer Daniel Rubin, then U. S. Communist Party National Youth director.

Those delegates adopted Hall's proposal to compile a list of "initiators" who would meet in December and issue a call for a national founding convention. The "initiators" met as scheduled in Chicago December 28 and 29, 1963. They decided to hold the founding convention in June 1964.

San Francisco was selected for the national co-ordinating office of the "initiators." Three regional co-ordinators were named, all Communist Party members.

Ann Landers Starving Kids Make Her Fat

Dear Ann Landers: I just read the letter from the girl who has a weight problem. That makes two of us, only she is 19 and I am 14.

You suggested she see a physician or a counselor. My mother says I am too young to see a physician or a counselor. I am not arguing, because I know what my problem is.

I keep seeing pictures of starving kids from foreign countries. They are holding empty bowls and spoons and their eyes are so sad. This fractures me. Some weeks I give my whole allowance to missions but I still feel I'm not doing enough. I've already decided to join the Peace Corps.

I keep thinking of those starving kids and I can't stop eating. What shall I do?—FAT MISSIONARY FROM CANTON

Dear Mish: Try reverse psychology. Find some pictures of fat people. When ever you feel like gorging yourself, look at a picture.

A fat missionary would have a very tough time in the jungle. For the sake of humanity you must keep your weight down.

If this doesn't work tell your mother that people of ALL ages need to be checked periodically by a doctor.

Dear Ann Landers: My wife is always showing your column under my nose, especially when you have a letter about a husband who likes to drink beer and sit in front of the TV set. Please print this letter so I can shove it under her nose.

We have three good sons, the oldest 12, the youngest 7. Whenever one of them has a fight with a neighborhood kid my wife jumps right in, phoning mothers and going over in persons to "make sure our boy comes out all right."

The kids always make up but my wife is not on speaking terms with half the neighborhood. Please print your advice.

—THE OLD MAN

Dear Man: A mother who becomes involved in the petty squabbles of her children is more childish than they are.

Ask your wife to please wait until you get home before she "does anything." By then the trouble will have been settled—by the kids.

Dear Ann Landers: Our niece who is only 27, lost her young husband in a tragic accident six months ago. They had been married less than a year.

Her parents felt that Regina would be better off in another city—away from memories—so they asked if she could live with us until she found a job and an apartment of her own. We were delighted to help.

Regina has been with us four months. She found an excellent position as a bilingual secretary at $125 a week and seems to have recovered from her grief. She has a date almost every night.

The girl says nothing about finding her own apartment. In the meantime I am doing her washing and ironing and preparing her meals. She enters-tains in our home and hands me the grocery list for her parties. She has never offered to pay for anything—says she wouldn't insult us by suggesting our hospitality is purchasable.

We are pleased that Regina feels at home here but we think she should start to pay for room and board. On the other hand, she has suffered a great tragedy and we feel sorry for her. Advise us please. —JUST FOLKS

Dear Folks: If Regina is dating every night she has recovered. Suggest that she "insult" you with about $30 a week until she finds a place of her own—which will cost her at least twice as much.

Do you lean on cigarettes as a social crutch? You may regret it later. Send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Teen-age Smoking," enclosing your request 10c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Quality Carpeting from your Quality Dealer

Staff LeDuc of Home Supply showing Jim and Sally all the Heavenly Carpets by Lees

Carpets and Rugs have never been prettier than they are right now, the values have never been greater. But which one should you buy? You're probably confused because there are literally hundreds of new styles on the market, fibers with unfamiliar names, promises of "miracles" and conflicting claims. You probably haven't shopped for a carpet in a long time—after all, it's not an "everyday" purchase, like food or clothing—and it does represent a big investment for your home.

Actually, there are just four decisions you have to make. Two of them concern appearance—finding the style you like best, the color and the texture best suited for your home. The other concern value—choosing the best quality at the price you can best afford. Come in and let us show you Lees Nylon, Acrylan and Wool. First quality carpets, whether you pay $6.95 or $22.95 per square yard. If it's Lee, you're safe.

Jim Hall of the Briton W. Hall Agency Explains Detroit & Northern's 5-Star Home Ownership Plan

★ You can make advance payments of any amount at any time, or pay in full—without penalty. (We encourage borrowers in good times to pay ahead on their loans).

★ Your monthly payments include real estate taxes and fire insurance. You have no big tax bills coming due once or twice yearly. These funds are not held dormant in an escrow account, but are applied directly to the loan, reducing the balance and saving you interest charges.

★ Additional loans up to $1,000, not to cause the balance to exceed the original loan, can be obtained at no additional cost to the borrower, providing the property value warrants the loan and the account is in good standing.

★ Long terms range to 25 years — depending on the location and age of the property and the age of the applicant.

★ Your D&N "Open-end" mortgage permits additional loans for remodeling or other worthwhile purposes without refinancing.

Million Dollar M-35 Project Is Off Bid List

Bids on only four of nine Upper Peninsula projects originally scheduled for opening will be accepted at the Michigan State Highway Department office in Escanaba on Wednesday, June 9.

The Department had scheduled projects valued at a total of $2,100,000 for five Upper Peninsula counties. Projects on which bids will be taken under the altered schedule are valued at slightly less than $400,000.

Announcement by Rex M. Whitton, federal highway administrator, that federal funds will be withheld on future projects on which the state cannot control the posting of billboards as required by federal regulations, forced the decision to remove five projects from the scheduled letting.

The federal action followed an early May State Supreme Court decision that existing state legislation controlling billboards and other highway right-of-way encroachments was not constitutional.

On Bid List

Bids will be accepted on the following:

Chippewa County - 4,335 miles of base correction, widening and bituminous aggregate surface course on M-48 from Goetzville southerly. Intermittent base correction and bituminous surface on M-48 from Detour west. Estimate, $160,000. Completion date: Oct. 31, 1965.

Delta County - Six miles of bituminous aggregate surface course on County Road 523 and County Road 521 in Delta County. Estimate, $50,000. Completion date: Oct. 15, 1965.

Marquette County: 0.12 miles of grading and drainage structures, aggregate base course with prime and double seal on U.S.-41 and M-28 at Partridge Creek in Ishpeming. Estimate, $20,000. Completion date: Aug. 31, 1965.

Ontonagon County: 3.97 miles intermittent base repair and bituminous aggregate surface course on U.S.-45 from Rockland northwesterly. Estimate, $250,000. Completion date: June 30, 1966.

Nancy Marie LaFave, Dennis Victorson Wed

Nancy Marie LaFave of Escanaba and Dennis Wayne Victorson of Appleton, Wis., were married today in an 11 a.m. double ring ceremony performed by Father Stephen Mayrand at St. Anne's Church. Altar flowers were yellow roses.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. George H. LaFave of 415 S. 9th St., and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Victorson of 1411 1st Ave. N., Escanaba.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Stone House and the reception will be held from 4 to 8 at the Eagles Hall.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white taffeta, fashioned with a pleated controlled skirt, bolero type lace bodice, round neckline and elbow length sleeves. Her waist length veil of pure silk illusion was caught to a dainty crown fashioned with a hand-made peau rose. She wore a single strand of pearls and earrings and she carried a cascading bouquet of white carnations, centered with a white orchid.

A yellow taffeta floor length dress with round neckline and bell shaped skirt was worn by Haila Dunford of Milwaukee, honor attendant. A cluster of three roses of self material with short veiling formed her headpiece. Her pearl necklace and earrings were the bride's gift. White carnations, centered with yellow roses formed her cluster bouquet.

Reception At Eagles

Daniel Owens of Negaunee was best man. The guests were seated by Wayne A. LaFave and Richard Victorson, brothers of the bride and groom.

Mrs. LaFave attended the wedding and is receiving guests in a pink linen two piece effect dress with sheath skirt and Mrs. Victorson is wearing an ensemble of print dress and matching aqua coat. Their accessories are white and their corsages, pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Ella Wilson, grandmother of the bridegroom, chose a royal blue print with bolero jacket. She also was presented with a pink and white carnation corsage.

Assisting at the reception are Jo Ellen Thiry and Judy Servant, guest book, Sandy Stefans and Mrs. Emmett O'Neil, pouring, Mrs. John Cody and Mrs. Tony Hunt, serving the wedding cake, and Mrs. Wayne LaFave and Mrs. James Stasewich in charge of gifts.

Aguirre Posts Fifth Win With Two-Hit Mound Job

DETROIT (AP) — Hank Aguirre's worries about his fifth victory of the season are over, thanks to a good fast ball and what he called "the best umpiring of my career."

Aguirre set down the Cleveland Indians on two hits — a third-inning single by Joe Azcue and a sixth-inning triple by Chuck Hinton—to chalk up a 1-0 victory Friday night.

Don Wert decided the pitching duel between Aguirre and Ralph Terry with an eighth-inning homer.

"When I won my first four games in a row, I felt I would have no trouble getting No. 5," the elated Aguirre said. "But when I lost the next two, I really started to think."

The triumph equalled Aguirre's 1964 output when he was 5-10. He beat Kansas City by the same score in the home opener this year.

"It was a pleasure to work out there with Umpire Ed Runge behind the plate," Aguirre added. "He called the best game I have ever seen. The times when I kicked the dirt after a pitch I was mad at myself, not him."

Aguirre, who still considers himself a warm weather pitcher, wore long underwear, thermal underwear and a couple of sweat shirts.

The temperature stood at 50 degrees at game time and had dropped two degrees by the ninth inning.

"I thought it was pretty hot out there, especially in the ninth inning," Aguirre said. "But I guess that's the way it always is with the close games."

Wert, who was in a similar role two years ago when he hit a home run off Washington's Claude Osteen in a 1-0 Detroit victory, said he still is not happy with his hitting.

"Sometimes, I get up there and feel real good. And other times it isn't so good. I just have to keep working at it," he explained.

The Indians posed only two other threats, besides Hinton's triple, in the game.

Jim Northrup dropped Leon Wagner's fly ball in the fourth inning for a two-base error and Aguirre threw the ball away in the seventh, allowing Vic Davalillo to reach second.

"After I threw that one away, I said to myself, 'it's time to bear down, buddy,'" Aguirre said. Larry Brown lined to Dick McAuliffe to end the inning.

The Tigers had a hit in each of the first four innings, including a triple by McAuliffe in the third. But Terry, bidding for his 100th major league victory, retired 11 consecutive batters before Wert's homer.

Three three-way deadlock for second place in the Escanaba Softball League standings will likely be straightened out in this week's schedule of games at Memorial Field.

Knotted behind unbeaten Mead No. 1 are Teamsters, Merchants and Flat Rock, all with 3-1 records. Mead has a 4-0 mark.

The three tied teams will see plenty of action during the week with the Teamsters in a position to gain ground on the other two, if they can come up with a pair of winning performances.

The Teamsters will take on the Merchants in the Wednesday nightcap and they will face Flat Rock in the Thursday opener. In other action, Flat Rock plays Michigan Hotel in Tuesday's opener and the Merchants take on Bero Motors in Friday's finale. So any one of the three teams involved in the deadlock could pull away from the pack this week.

It's doubtful, however, if any team will be able to gain ground on the league leading Paper Makers. With Todd Butler setting the pace, Mead No. 1 had strung together four straight triumphs and this week dips into the second division to meet Bero Motors Wednesday night and Mead 3 Friday night. Bero's team has one victory in four starts and Mead 3 is winless.

Hall Insurance and Michigan Hotel match Bero's record at 1-3.

Bill Rodman, league president, announced that managers must pay their team entry fee by June 15.

Roster sheets will be handed out this week and must be returned by July 1.

Robinson Back In Shape After 19-Day Layoff

By The Associated Press

It took Brooks Robinson one game to get back into shape. Dick Radatz needed six weeks.

Robinson returned to the Baltimore line-up after a 19-day absence as the Orioles divided a doubleheader with the Los Angeles Angels Friday night, losing the first game 3-1 before taking the nightcap 3-0.

Radatz made his third straight appearance as Boston whipped Kansas City 9-3.

The American League's Most Valuable Player last season, Robinson suffered a broken right thumb when hit by a pitch May 8. He played part-time the next day but hadn't appeared in a game since then.

Against the Angels in the opener, he failed to get a hit three trips to the plate. The rust wore off quickly, however, and he started the second game with a second-inning single.

Then, in the fourth, the ace third baseman doubled across two runs and scored the Orioles' other run on Jerry Adair's single.

Radatz, the AL's Fireman of the Year in 1964, had been having more than a little trouble this season prior to the last three days. Consistently ineffective, the 6-foot-5 veteran saw his earned run average soar to 7.43 two weeks ago.

With 5 1-3 innings of shutout relieving the past three days, though, Radatz has sliced his ERA to 6.19.

He relieved Jim Lonborg Friday night in the seventh inning with two runs in, two Athletics on base and one out. He got out of the jam and finished the game with one hit allowed and seven batters struck out.

His performance was only one of many outstanding pitching exhibitions in the American League.

George Brunet pitched a two-hitter for Los Angeles in the first game victory over Baltimore while Steve Barber came back in the nightcap and held the Angels to three hits.

Hank Aguirre pitched a two-hitter as Detroit edged Cleveland 1-0, and Chicago trimmed New York 2-0 behind Joe Horlen's six-hit hurling. Minnesota defeated Washington 4-1 in the first game of a scheduled doubleheader. Rain canceled the second.

The only Oriole hits off Brunet in the opener were Jack Brandt's first-inning single and Bob Johnson's double in the seventh.

Felix Mantilla supported Lonborg and Radatz with a two-run homer in the third inning and a run-scoring single in the eighth. Lenny Green and Ed Bressoud added homers for the Red Sox.

Don Wert's eighth-inning homer off Cleveland's Ralph Terry gave Aguirre his fifth victory against two defeats. Terry, 4-3, gave up just five hits.

The White Sox were held hitless by Bill Stafford until the sixth inning. Then, Johnny Romano led off with a single, moved to second on a sacrifice, and scored as Don Buford bounced a single off the glove of first baseman Joe Pepitone.

Tony Oliva drove in three Minnesota runs with a single and a homer. Bob Allison also homered for the Twins. Dave Boswell held the Senators to one hit through 5 2-3 innings until he was forced to leave the game with a blistered finger.

The 55-day 1965 Hollywood Park meeting marks the thoroughbred track's 26th season.

Red Wings Trade Again; Abel Eyes One More Man

By BERNIE KENNEDY

Associated Press Sports Writer

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Red Wings Manager — Coach Sid Abel, wheeler-dealer of the National Hockey League, says one more trade will complete his team for the 1965-66 campaign.

Abel disclosed Friday, after announcing a four-for-three player deal between his NHL regular-season champions and the Boston Bruins, that a trade for another defenseman was in the works.

"We could make the deal I have in mind before the NHL meetings in Montreal next month," Abel said. "The deal involves a defenseman and if we get him, I'll concentrate on drafting players for our minor league teams at Pittsburgh and Memphis."

Abel, making his second multi-player swap in nine days, sent left wingers Parker McDonald and Bob Dillabough, defenseman Al Langlois and minor league winger defenseman Ron Harris to the Bruins.

In a return, the Red Wings received left winger Ab McDonald, defenseman Bob McCord and minor league defenseman Ken Stephenson.

"We're counting on McDonald to deliver with at least 20 goals for us," Abel said. "He's a big

Venturi Will Enter Buick Golf Tourney

GRAND BLANC (AP) — Rejuvenating U.S. Open champion Ken Venturi has announced he will play in next week's eighth annual $100,000 Buick Open Golf tournament at the Warwick Hills Golf & Country Club.

Venturi has been bothered by an ailment which has caused him to lose his sense of touch in his hand.

All seven past Buick Open champions, headed by defending titlist Tony Lema; at least 13 champions of the 19 PGA tournaments this year and at least 29 champions of the 38 tourneys since the 1964 Open, are in the field.

Venturi's entry brought to 150 the number filed for this year's tournament. Only 144 will start Thursday's first round, under to PGA rules.

Some 60 entrants are exempt. The others will have to shoot a qualifying round at the Flint Golf Club next Tuesday.

New Shortstop Continues Hot Hitting For Giants

By The Associated Press

The next time Dick Schofield's phone rings, it may be that little old landlady with the $700-a-month place to rent giving it another try.

Schofield, who hasn't been able to locate a place to live in San Francisco, continued to remain right at home on the field for the Giants, again playing a key role Friday night in a 12-7 victory over Cincinnati.

Acquired from Pittsburgh in a straight shortstop swap for Jose Pagan, Schofield went shopping for a place to live Thursday, bumped into the landlady and was almost bowled over by the price tag on her living quarters.

Schofield adds to his value every day with the Giants. He has hit safely in all six games for his new mates, building a .364 batting average.

And against the Reds, he led off with his first homer of the season, kept Cincinnati from moving ahead in the fifth inning with a spectacular fielding play and then got a seven-run rally started in the sixth inning by walking and scoring the run rangy guy and we know he can score in this league."

Abel said McDonald, who scored 14 goals and 32 assists as a member of Chicago's "Scooter Line" in 1963-64, was a "little down in the dumps" with Boston. He scored nine goals and nine assists.

McCord, at 31 the oldest of the three players acquired, was the most sought-after defenseman in the American Hockey League four years ago. The Bruins finally gave up four players to get him.

Stephenson, 23, was recommended to Abel by chief scout Jimmie Skinner. Abel planned to draft him but jumped at the opportunity when his name was brought up in trade talks.

McDonald, who scored a career high of 33 goals for the Red Wings two years ago, was the key acquisition for the Bruins.

"Parker played very well for us and was a real asset," Abel said. "But the fans got on him when he failed to score goals as he did two years ago and this affected his play. It also put more pressure on me."

Abel feels his hunt for left wingers is over. "With Ron Murphy, Andy Bathgate (acquired from Toronto) and McDonald, we have that problem licked. Now we need just one more defenseman," he said.

Marcel Pronovost, Larry Jeffrey, Eddie Joyal, Aut Erickson and Lowell MacDonald were traded to Toronto for Bathgate, Billy Harris and Gary Jarrett last May 20.

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Three hours of carburetion tests Saturday at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway was the last chance for 33 drivers to handle their cars on the track before the 49th 500-mile race Monday.

In the past, this period has been largely an extra practice, but the tests have a closer meaning this year.

Many crews, particularly those with new Ford engines, have been trying to find a way to send their cars the full 500 miles on the two mandatory pit stops.

Some mechanics have admitted privately that if they use alcohol, three pit stops will be necessary. A possible solution is to use gasoline but that would mean sacrificing horsepower and would also be adding a fire hazard.

Some mechanics apparently hope to use a blend of the two fuels and varying formulas of such was what they tested today.

The carburetion test period meant much to two 500 veterans, Parnelli Jones, Torrance, Calif., and Lloyd Ruby, Wichita Falls, Tex.

Both got in trouble and their cars hit the wall after they had qualified, causing heavy damage to both. Both were expected to be in shape for the last war-nup.

The apparent readiness of the two cars seemingly dissipated the last chance for veteran Roger Ward to make the race. A starter in 14 straight 500s, former winner Ward was the first alternate on the basis of his 34th fastest qualifying time.

Ward apparently was resigned to not racing, since it was announced Friday he will do the commentary on a closed-circuit television showing of the speed classic.

With the approach of the race, the city's 500 festival, in progress since May 1, neared its climax — the giant pre-race parade.

The procession of 33 elaborate floats, hundreds of bands and marching units and carloads of television, film and sports celebrities and other notables will wind through downtown Indianapolis at twilight Saturday along a route lined with 37,000 reserved seats in bleachers.

The annual governor's ball was held Friday night.

A walk to Hank Aaron and singles by Joe Torre and Gene Oliver produced one run. Eddie Mathews then walked and Mack Jones stroked a two-run single that put Milwaukee ahead to stay.

Jim Wynn's single and a double by Walt Bond accounted for the Astros' winning run in the 12th as Jim Owens squared his record at 2-2 with three innings of perfect relief pitching.

Cardinals starter Ray Sadecki limited Houston to five hits and had a 2-1 lead until Bob Aspromonte led off the ninth with a homer.

Ray Culp got home run support from Tony Gonzalez and Wes Covington but needed Chris Short's one-out relief help in the ninth inning before subduing the Cubs.

Attend the Church of Your Choice

NOON

by the Chapel Clock

One . . . two . . . three.

Four years Connie and I have listened to that deep, resonant chime counting off the hours of our college days. Sometimes it was just part of the setting at State — like the Commons, and the Quad, and Moonlight Walk. But often it called us to high moments of worship and thought and prayer.

Four . . . five . . . six.

Today we pause, and count! Exams are over. Trunks are packed. Books are on their way back to the Library. Tomorrow — Commencement.

Seven . . . eight . . . nine.

Again we're reading each other's thoughts. Let's walk once more through that graceful arch, hand-in-hand and smiling. Let's kneel together in the sacred stillness, breathing our thanks . . . our hopes . . . our needs . . . our dreams. For life and love await us. And these we will share with God! It is Noon by the Chapel Clock.

Ten . . . eleven . . . twelve.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
